ABSTRACT

This report presents an overview of the National Service Scheme (NSS) activity conducted at our college, focusing on the management of electronic waste (e-waste). The initiative aimed to raise awareness among students about the environmental and health hazards associated with improper e-waste disposal while promoting sustainable waste management practices. The activity involved the collection of discarded electronic devices, segregation of recyclable components, and the safe disposal of hazardous materials through authorized recycling channels. Participants also engaged in discussions on e-waste reduction strategies, including responsible consumption, repair, and recycling. Through this initiative, students gained practical knowledge about e-waste management, highlighting the importance of environmental sustainability and responsible electronic usage. The successful execution of this activity not only contributed to a cleaner campus but also instilled a sense of accountability towards sustainable waste disposal among the participants.
